Join Us!

Catholic Scholars for Worker Justice (CSWJ) is an international association of scholars who are committed to Catholic Social Teaching on workers' rights. We were founded to proclaim the Church's extremely welcoming attitude to unions in the workplace and to support workers in both Catholic and secular workplaces who seek to form unions.

CSWJ stands with workers everywhere who pursue social justice through the natural right of free association that is rooted in the divine law. We support the following principles of Catholic Social Teaching concerning workers' rights:

- 1. Labor unions are indispensable for the universal common good.*
- 2. Unions are rooted in the right of free association.*
- 3. Unions protect the right to fair wages and benefits.*
- 4. Unions foster solidarity through participation and subsidiarity.*
- 5. Unions seek cooperative relations with employers.*
